DAVID HOLMES

Originally from Melbourne, David experienced the art of auctioneering first-hand in general auctions prior to moving into real estate sales and auctioneering before progressing to become the Chief Auctioneer for LJ Hooker Australia and ultimately, owner of holmes. Auctions and highly sought after independent auctioneer working across SE QLD, Northern NSW and the ACT. David's quick wit and calm, yet conversational style of auctioneering, sees buyers at ease and enables agents to achieve the best possible results for their vendors. In addition to being a winner of the 2021 and 2023 Auctioneer of the Year award, he has been a three times finalist and has called thousands of auctions. Auctioneering is his passion as evidenced by the calibre of clients he attracts and the market leading results they achieve.
