TREVOR TIPPETT

Trevor Tippett is an experienced Auctioneer with a remarkable track record of delivering top results. A revered property expert, he has exceptional prowess at transacting properties in challenging markets. Evidencing his profound success in the industry, whilst working in Mackay, Trevor achieved recognition as the number one sales agent in North Queensland before turning his attention to the Auctioneering space after seeing a gap in the market. He brings a wealth of wisdom to the agency and is a valued member of the team. Trevor's knack of engaging with multiple clients and not compromising his authentic approach is part of his winning make up. Forthcoming in providing honest advice, he's a clear communicator, who genuinely takes the time to understand everyone's goals. Trevor is a sharp negotiator and strategist with the drive to go the extra mile to exceed his clientele's expectations. In addition, his trade background supplements his incredibly diverse knowledge.
